Under federal law, including Rule 5(f) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1963), and all applicable decisions interpreting Brady, the government has a continuing obligation to produce all information or evidence known to the government that is relevant to the guilt or punishment of a defendant, including, but not limited to, exculpatory evidence.

Accordingly, the Court Orders the government to produce to the defendant in a timely manner all information or evidence known to the government that is either: (1) relevant to the defendant's guilt or punishment; or (2) favorable to the defendant on the issue of guilt or punishment.
